

S.E. Wisconsin Antique Power & Collectibles Society

July 1, 2023

Dear Community Member:

SouthEast Wisconsin Antique Power & Collectibles Society, Inc. (SEWAPACS), is a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization whose mission is: To promote the collection, preservation and demonstration of the machinery, equipment and methods required in early agriculture and homesteading in order to preserve the knowledge of our heritage for the education of the public and future generations.

To facilitate this educational experience SEWAPACS hosts “Fall Harvest Days” the weekend after Labor Day each year. We are excited and gearing up for our 31st Annual Show, September 9-11. Our show is open to the general public and past shows have been well attended. We are anticipating an even larger crowd this year and are seeking Community Support in order to expand our activities in the community and share the rich Agricultural History of Racine County and the surrounding area. All proceeds generated by our activities are used for the expansion of the show’s reach in order to serve the greatest portion of the community.

Would you help us by making a donation?
